Rowdy: Function, Features and Stackability SitOnIt's Newest High Density Stacking Chair Offers More for Less

Cypress, CA, December 2003 - In January 2004, SitOnIt Seating will introduce Rowdy, the newest addition to its highly successful stackable seating offering. Rowdy features a handsome, stylish look and is available in six designer plastic colors. Available in arm or armless models with a black or chrome frame, Rowdy is competitively priced at only $98 list for armless models and $143 list for models with arms.

Rowdy is a versatile performer in various environments, at home both in corporate applications as well as educational, institutional, and health care settings. Conveniently light weight, Rowdy features a back handhold for ease of transport. Using a custom stacking cart, Rowdy stacks 40 high, facilitating cleaning and promoting quick and easy storage.

Rowdy is designed for user comfort with a one-piece seat and back that provide a generous fit. The textured shell offers eye-catching design and is molded from high-impact polypropylene for long-lasting durability. A wall saver is incorporated into Rowdy's frame to minimize potential scuffs and marks on walls. Chairs can be ganged arm-to-arm or armless-to-armless, promoting maintained alignment and efficient space planning while stacking bumpers and glides make Rowdy friendly to surrounding furnishings and floors.

Offered with a lifetime warranty, Rowdy is available when you need it, shipping in just two business days from receipt of order. Call 888-274-8664 to see how fast and easy it is to put Rowdy to work for you.
